

SASKATOONLIBRARY.CA

Storytelling in the Public Realm:

From Didactic to Abstract Approaches

Thursday / September 26 / 7 – 9 p.m.

Frances Morrison Library / Theatre / Lower Level

SPL100YRS

Join us for an evening presentation by public artist Jill Anholt and communications designer Susan Mavor, both of Vancouver, who will discuss how public art can use a variety of approaches to incorporate elements of storytelling. Ms. Anholt and Ms. Mavor will be in Saskatoon for the unveiling of their Moose Jaw Trail public artwork in Stonebridge.

Presented in partnership with the City of Saskatoon, Visual Arts Placement Jury; City of Saskatoon, Community Development, Arts and Culture Program; and Great Places.

For information about library programs, visit our online calendar or pick up a copy of Library News.

FPASStorytelling07_13

-submitted photo

Frances Morrison Library

311-23rd St E
306.975.7579

All Saskatoon Public Library locations are wheelchair accessible, with the exception of the lower level of J.S. Wood Branch, where the program rooms and washrooms are only accessible by stairway.