

	Exchange programs	Short programs offered by partners	Faculty-led programs or taught abroad courses	Term abroad programs	Internships/practicums/externships	Study abroad independently
When can I go?	Winter and/or fall terms or spring/summer terms—program start- and end-dates vary	Throughout spring and summer terms and winter and fall terms during scheduled academic breaks	Throughout spring and summer terms and winter and fall terms during scheduled academic breaks	Winter term	Program start and end dates vary throughout the year	Program start and end dates vary throughout the year
How long can I go for?	One term, the full academic year or short programs in the summer term	One week to three months	One to four weeks	One term	Usually for one term or the full academic year	One term or the full academic year
What can I do?	Courses or research	Courses or research	Courses	Courses	Program details will be specified in a contract or agreement	Courses or research
Can I transfer credit back?	Usually—consult your college before you go	Usually—this will be decided by your college before or after you complete the program	USask course credit—no transfer required	USask course credit—no transfer required	Usually—this will be decided by your college before or after you complete the program	Usually—this will be decided by your college before or after you complete the program
Who is this open to?	Graduate and Undergraduate students	Graduate and undergraduate students	Graduate and undergraduate students	Graduate and undergraduate students	Graduate and undergraduate students	Graduate and undergraduate students
Is it open to my college?	A variety of opportunities are open to students in the colleges of Agriculture and Bioresources, Arts and Science, Education, Edwards School of Business, Engineering, Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies Law and Kinesiology	Open to all students 	Programs are college specific but some are open to all students	Open to all students	Programs are college specific 	Open to all students
What do I pay?	USask tuition	USask tuition or host institution fee	USask tuition and program fees	USask tuition and program fees	Tuition depends on placement type	Host institution tuition
How do I apply?	Speak with an international education officer at the International Student and Study Abroad Centre	Speak with an international education officer at the International Student and Study Abroad Centre	Speak with the faculty leader or the college program coordinator	Speak with the college program coordinator	Speak with the college program coordinator	The post-secondary institution where you would like to study
When do I apply?	February 1 for fall term and academic year and September 15 for winter term	February 1 for spring/summer programs, deadlines for other programs vary	This is determined by the faculty leader or program coordinator in your college	This is determined by the program coordinator in your college	Deadlines are college specific	Check host institution for visiting student deadlines